

I am an avid shortwave listner and urge the FCC to vote against allowing BPL do to the overwhelming interference proven to desensitize receivers. I would urge the telecommunications industries to get busy installing fiber optic cables to all homes which would provide more than enough bandwidth at a far lesser price and not interfere with over the air communications. Thank you.